Preparing Candidates for the Ministry of the United Church of Canada

St. Andrew's College prepares men and women from all walks of life for the work of the Christian ministry.

Among the students in attendance are school principals, regular army officers, business men, farmers, as well as those who come directly from High School. We follow one of these through our booklet this year, Howard Groom.

Howard Groom, a married man with a family, was a linotype operator in Ontario. Teaching Sunday School for several years, and attendance at a summer school for lay supplies led him to offer himself for the full time work of the church.

Recommended by Qu'Appelle Presbytery he became a candidate for the ministry, and was certified to St. Andrew's College. Here he interviews the Principal.

As an older married man without matriculation he was granted the short course, four years of mixed Arts and Theology. Here he enters the Administration Building at the University of Saskatchewan.

In due course he entered his courses in theology at St. Andrew's College. He appears here as a member of the Senior Class, attending a lecture by Dr. Chalmers in Christian Ethics and Sociology.

After taking some theology, Howard decided to complete his matriculation and take the degree of Bachelor of Arts. Thus he became eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Here he confers regarding his B.D. thesis with members of the faculty: Dr. R. F. Schnell, Principal and Professor of Old Testament; Dr. R. C. Chalmers, Registrar and Professor of Systematic Theology; Dr. R. D. Tannahill, Librarian, and Professor of Church History; Rev. T. Tatsuyama, Lecturer in New Testament.

Here we see Howard hard at work on his B.D. thesis in the College Library.

Considerable attention is paid also to practical training. Here Howard, with other members of the Senior Class, returns through the University gates from the newly opened University Hospital where they have been receiving clinical training in Pastoral Psychiatry.

In addition to studies, there are opportunities for fellowship in Common Room, participation in group sports, varied student activities, and for worship in the College chapel. Here Howard conducts morning worship.

In the College Dining Hall, Howard takes his meals with 80 other residents, not all candidates for the ministry but from other Colleges on the Campus—Medicine, Engineering, Law, etc. He is being served by one of his fellow students who is earning part of his way through College by waiting on tables.

Here Howard is leaving for the manse at Hanley where he has served as student minister for the last five years. Soon he will go forth fully trained as an ordained minister.
